“Actively Pursuing a Transformational Friendship with God”

“...but I have called you friends.” - Jesus, John 15:15

Welcome to Our Open House May 31st!!!

Our Open House was a huge success - not to mention a great time. We expected 40 people to stop by. We had around 65! People showed up early and left late. As one person said, “That means that this is home!” Amen!

From the top: Donna Grossman, Nancy Miller and Kathleen Martens pose for a lovely picture. Who is that guy in the back?

Lana Kearney and Beth Batz steal some time in the back away from the crowds (just like Jesus would sometimes do).

Steve Kozar with his wife Paulette and his amazing canvas oil print in the background (Paulette is amazing, too).

↔ Bob and Bonnie Groth have become great supporters to our ministry. Bob was one of six pastors who visited us that day.

This tasty cake quickly disappeared after a powerful time of prayer, dedication, thankfulness and celebration.

There's the cake disappearing with help from Tom Schroeckenthaler, Joel Alberti and Steve.

Dave Bechtold is tattling on Steve with his parents, Dave and Judi Freitag.

Dave B. Shares with Jenni and Sarah Bechtold about how much trouble he's gotten Steve into.

Former board member Jim Vann (honorary discharge) visits with Jenni after spending 3 hours assembling a book case for CrossCounsel. Sweet - not unlike the cake!

All photos by Tim Kearney - thanks!

The Freitags do not receive a salary from Damascus Road or Mad City Church, but are still Missionary Partners of both.

If you would rather give through these churches than directly to CrossCounsel, you may do so but must write "Freitag" in the memo line.

What a difference a few weeks make! Below is a picture of the back before we built walls, painted and decorated.

It has definitely been a labor of love, sweat and some skill.

The best decorations are the presence of God and His people. Here are Jim Keene, Kim Clough, Myrna Keene and Hans Clough. Kim's husband Dwight is just out of the frame - sorry. God sees him.
