Hold Harmless Agreement

I voluntarily agree to meet with and will not hold CrossCounsel, its facilitators or any facility responsible for what happens as a result of sessions, nor do I desire for anyone to act on my behalf. I agree to have a ministry intercessor present who is bound by the same confidentiality agreement as our facilitators.

I understand CrossCounsel's prayer ministers are not board-certified counselors. CrossCounsel is not a counseling ministry. I acknowledge some or all of the processes used to provide spiritual and emotional help may or may not be clinically demonstrated to guarantee short- or long-term results.

I know I am free to discontinue my participation at any time, for any reason. I accept full responsibility for all my choices as made by me now and in the future. I am fully responsible for any and all consequences related to prematurely terminating any intervention that was pursued on my behalf. I acknowledge CrossCounsel has the right to discontinue ministry to me at any time.

I am responsible for keeping confidential any personal information that may be shared with me during the time I am in session. I give my permission to be anonymously referenced for testimonial purposes.

Financial Understanding

CrossCounsel is a self-sustaining ministry, relying on donations. As much as we don't enjoy talking about the money, it has been helpful for us to be up front about what we believe is fair for our time, experience and level of competency. Taking into account the years of ministry, reputation and record of success, we could ask double the amount requested.

Requested Donation $*

- | | |
|-----------------------------------|--------------|
| • Adults (75 minutes) | $100 |
| • Couples Session (90 minutes) | $120 |
| • Children and Teens (60 minutes) | $ 80 |

* We do not turn anyone away based solely on an inability to contribute. Our monthly supporters allow us some financial flexibility. We understand the challenges people face, but that there is a difference between inability and unwillingness. We encourage you to trust the Lord in this and to see the value in attending to your emotional and spiritual growth and needs.

Cancellation/Missed Appointment Policy

If you need to cancel, please notify us 2 full business days prior to your appointment. If you are unable to do this or miss your appointment, we'd appreciate the requested donation amount to compensate for the time we have set aside for you in our schedule. We're flexible when illness prevents you from coming, but would ask that you honor everyone's time by giving ample notice of cancellation.

If you're late for an appointment, we can't guarantee that you will receive the full 75 minutes that we set aside. For example, if you're 15 minutes late, we may only have an hour remaining for you.

Ministry Support

You may also elect to give more or even invest in our mission by becoming a regular donor. More information about our philosophy of requesting donations for ministry time is available on our web site (www.crosscounsel.com). We accept cash, personal check, PayPal, or credit card donations.

Follow-Up

This is a good but difficult journey. We know it well. We may make an effort to follow up with you through a phone call or email, but you are always welcome to reach out to us. Rest assured, we highly value the trust you've placed in us and will not violate it by sharing your information with others.
